

Dear Supporter,

Autism is now one of the most common developmental disorders in the United States. Statistics show that 1 out of 88 children born today will be on the autism spectrum. Unfortunately, the autism diagnosis is rising at an inexplicable rate. Now more than ever the Indiana Autism community needs your support. With this in mind, Answers for Autism and Talk About Curing Autism (TACA) are working together to raise funds for programs in Indiana and to increase autism awareness through the annual An Evening For Autism on Friday, November 15, 2013 at EventzPlus from 7 p.m. to 12 p.m.

This year's An Evening For Autism theme will be "Sinatra and Soul." The night will include food provided by Indiana's finest restaurants, wine donated by Foyt Family Wines, entertainment by Andrew Young, and a live and silent auction. Last year's Raise Your Glass event was a wine tasting and art auction in which approximately 200 people attended. We are expecting up to 300 guests to attend this year's event. We know how important giving back to the community is to you and your company. We hope you will consider supporting An Evening For Autism by becoming an event sponsor, a table sponsor or by making a donation to our auction. Below is information about the organizations benefiting from this event.

Answers for Autism is a volunteer-driven organization that focuses on helping those in Indiana with autism, their caregivers, and their families. We do this through our grant program, which advances autism research and provides funding for programs in Indiana that serve individuals on the autism spectrum and increase public awareness. Since 2001, Answers for Autism has contributed over a half million dollars to organizations across Indiana and to national research. For more information, please visit the Answers for Autism website: www.answersautism.org.

Talk About Curing Autism (TACA) Indiana is an organization dedicated to educating, empowering and supporting families affected by autism. For families who have just received the autism diagnosis, TACA aims to speed up the cycle time from the autism diagnosis to effective treatments. TACA helps to strengthen the autism community by connecting families and the professionals who can help them, allowing them to share stories and information to help improve the quality of life for people with autism. For more information, please visit TACA's website: <http://www.tacanow.org/indiana>.

We hope you will consider supporting An Evening For Autism through a sponsorship or donation. Both organizations are non-profit 501(c)(3). In return, your generosity will be recognized through a number of event-related marketing materials showing your company's support for families in Indiana living with autism.

If you have questions or need more information, please contact one of the committee members below.

Sincerely,

Patty Reed

Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your Oct. 22, 2012, request for information regarding your tax-exempt status.

Our records indicate that you were recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a determination letter issued in September 2002.

Our records also indicate that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are described in section(s) 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Please refer to our website www.irs.gov/eo for information regarding filing requirements. Specifically, section 6033(j) of the Code provides that failure to file an annual information return for three consecutive years results in revocation of tax-exempt status as of the filing due date of the third return for organizations required to file. We will publish a list of organizations whose tax-exempt status was revoked under section 6033(j) of the Code on our website beginning in early 2011.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

Richard McKee, Department Manager
Accounts Management Operations

Dear Applicant:

Our letter dated December 2003, stated you would be exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and you would be treated as a public charity, rather than as a private foundation, during an advance ruling period.

Based on the information you submitted, you are classified as a public charity under the Code section listed in the heading of this letter. Since your exempt status was not under consideration, you continue to be classified as an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Publication 557, Tax-Exempt Status for Your Organization, provides detailed information about your rights and responsibilities as an exempt organization. You may request a copy by calling the toll-free number for forms, (800) 829-3676. Information is also available on our Internet Web Site at www.irs.gov.

If you have general questions about exempt organizations, please call our toll-free number shown in the heading.

Please keep this letter in your permanent records.

Sincerely yours,

Robert Choi
